THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD

January 12, 2025

Romans 6:1-11

AS WE GATHER... Today is the first of the bookends that mark the Epiphany season—the Baptism of Our Lord and His Transfiguration. In common is the command from God to “listen to Him.” We begin our journey of listening to the Lord, learning from those who went before, acknowledging the revelation of the Lamb of God in baptismal water, and looking to Him, the Word made flesh. In His Baptism, our Lord was not washed because He was unclean but because we are. The Father saw the prophetic words of Isaiah fulfilled in the water of the Jordan, and He claimed Jesus as His own Son and our appointed Redeemer. “You are Mine,” said the Lord to Jesus. Because He said those words to Jesus, they are now addressed to us—the people for whom Jesus was baptized.

OPENING HYMN “To Jordan’s River Came Our Lord”

LSB 405

RITE OF BAPTISMAL RENEWAL / CONFESSION & ABSOLUTION

Pastor: In the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

Pastor: Dear friends, we were buried into Christ by Baptism into His death and raised with Him to newness of life. I call upon you to renew the solemn promises and vows of Holy Baptism, by which we once renounced the devil and all his works and ways and were made members of the Holy Christian Church. Do you renounce the devil?

People: Yes, I renounce him.

Pastor: Do you renounce all his works?

People: Yes, I renounce them.

Pastor: Do you renounce all his ways?

People: Yes, I renounce them.

Pastor: Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty?

People: Yes, I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

Pastor: Do you believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord?

People: Yes, I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day He rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and sits at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From thence He will come to judge the living and the dead.

Pastor: Do you believe in the Holy Spirit?

People: Yes, I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting.

Pastor: Is it your purpose to continue steadfast in this faith and in the promise of Your Baptism and, as a member of the church, to be diligent in the use of the means of grace and prayer?

People: Yes, with the help of God.

Pastor: As God’s baptized children, we recall the baptismal waters through daily contrition and repentance. Since we are gathered to hear the Word of God, which speaks over us in the waters of Baptism, let us confess before our God and one another that we have sinned in thought, word, and deed. We cannot set ourselves free from the entanglement of our sinful condition. Therefore, together as one people, united to Christ’s death and resurrection, let us take refuge in the faithfulness of our God, seeking His forgiveness and grace, and saying: God, be merciful to me, a sinner.

People: Almighty God, have mercy upon us. Speak over us words of life. Forgive us our sins and lead us with Jesus to life everlasting. Amen.

Pastor: Almighty God, the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given you the new birth of water and of the Spirit and has forgiven you all your sins, strengthen you with His grace to life everlasting. In the stead and by the command of our Lord Jesus Christ, I therefore forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

People: Amen.

PASTOR WENDORF'S WEEKLY DEVOTION WISDOM FOR THE NEW YEAR

*Keep falsehood and lies far from me; Give me neither poverty nor riches,
But give me only my daily bread. Proverbs 30:8*

What do you look forward to in the New Year? The wise words of our text give us direction. The desire should be that we have neither too much or too little. The warning in Proverbs is that too much can cause problems as well as too little. Our satisfaction should be found in the simple words of our text: "Give me only my daily bread." Having that need fulfilled, and with a sincere faith in God, who is the provider of all good things, we can find contentment in the year ahead.

*You are welcome to contact Pastor Wendorf to share your thoughts regarding his weekly devotions:

NEW WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY!

When Strivings Cease
February 6 - March 13

6:30pm - 8pm; St. Paul School Library

Find freedom from the never-ending quest for approval and affirmation by learning how to accept the undeserved gift of grace from a merciful God.

In today's society, the pressure to perform is overwhelming. It's a hustling, image-forward age of opportunity, and women are more anxious than ever. Many of us end up constantly feeling behind, lacking, and like we're failing—at home, at work, with friends, with God. In this six-session Bible study, bestselling author Ruth Chou Simons calls women to discover how God's profound gift of grace and favor invites them to rest from chasing approval and earning love, and instead discover the freedom of true belonging and worth that doesn't depend on them.

PASTOR ANDERSON NEEDS VOLUNTEERS FOR HIS DOCTOR OF MINISTRY PROJECT

The time during Sabbatical enabled Pastor Anderson to complete his proposal for his final project and get it approved. The next step is the "research phase" with the congregation. During the first five weekends of Lent (March 9th-April 6th), Pastor Anderson will be preaching a sermon series on the theme of "Authentic Relationships," one of St. Paul's five core values. He will need participants from the congregation who will be willing to commit to being present for all five sermons and who will be willing to be interviewed two times, once before the sermon series and once after. If you would like to help out, please fill out a participant form, which can be found online on the homepage of our church website (splgraffton.org) or as a physical form in the narthex. If completing a physical form, please return it to the church office. Participant forms are to be completed by January 30th. You will be notified at a later date as to whether or not you will be asked to participate and, if you are asked, what the next steps will be.
